POSITION: Café Intern
HOURS: Part-time, 20 hours weekly; primarily daytime hours
DURARTION: 160 hours, 8 consecutive weeks
CONTACT: vcasillas@maicnet.org  (612)879-1780

We are a community-embraced café that encourages living healthy, eating healthy and education through ancestral knowledge. Gatherings Café serves fresh, locally grown foods that are Indigenous and prepared in healthy ways. We are in the heart of the urban Native American community where people gather to catch up with friends and family. Over the span of 8 weeks you will be taught food service knowledge by Industry professionals in a fast paced, creative environment. Native American preference. Paid training, earn while you learn. Every other month beginning in January we will be recruiting.

What you gain from us
- Work side-by-side with Chefs, experienced kitchen staff, and community
- "Hands-on" learning in a creative setting
- Practice teamwork and gain leadership skills
- Support in becoming confident in your interview readiness
- Help finding a job and support in developing job-readiness
- Program is free of charge (and you get paid a work incentive)
- Utilize Indigenous ingredients and learn about Indigenous cooking
- Gain knowledge of healthy nutrition and access to healthy foods
- Learn about Indigenous foodways and significance of Indigenous foods

What we require from you
- Commitment to the Gatherings Café Internship program and to your potential.
- Set goals and communicate with us to create a plan to achieve the necessary skills and experience for job placement.
- Self-discipline and respect for others
- Ability to be punctual and reliable
- Practice good personal hygiene and adhere to Covid safety practices
- Ability to work 20 hours minimum a week during primarily daytime hours
- Complete 160 hours of training over the span of 8 weeks
- Enroll in workforce development partner agencies, if you qualify for services
- Age 18 and over
- Commitment to gain Serve Safe certification